Mr. Keith's visit recalls to the minds of some of the baldheaded, graybearded members of Louisa Chapter of Royal Arch Masons a memorable visit made by his father, the Rev. William Keith, deceased. Rev. Mr. Keith, called by many the John The Baptist of the Sandy Valley, came here to take the Chapter degrees. On the night the Royal Arch degree was confered the old gentleman's religious and emotional nature was so strongly appealed to at a certain stage of the ceremony that he gave vent to his feelings with shouting and praise. Those present will never forget that memorable occasion.
